

September 1, 2006

For Immediate Release

PROTOCOLS ADDS THREE CASE MANAGERS

Denver – Protocols, LLC, (www.protocolsllc.com) the Denver-based medical settlement planning company, has added Jessica Bloom, Rita Robles and Erin J. Wallace as case managers.

Bloom, Robles and Wallace will manage medical settlement cases involving Medicare set-aside proposals and MSA account administration.

Prior to joining Protocols, Bloom worked for Jefferson County Human Services and Adoption Choices of Colorado. Bloom earned her bachelor's degree in social work from Colorado State University and her master's degree from the University of Wyoming.

Robles, a former legal assistant with Great West Life Insurance, earned her associate's degree in paralegal studies and holds an ABA-approved paralegal certificate.

Before coming to Protocols, Wallace worked as a substitute teacher for the Amarillo Independent School District. Additionally, Wallace serves as the executive director for the Colorado Youth Hockey Foundation. Wallace earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Texas at Austin.

Protocols is a multidisciplinary consulting firm that specializes in medical settlement planning for parties involved in workers' compensation and personal injury liability cases – from simple to the complex.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Contact Bob Weiss, weiss@prdenver.com, (303) 298-1676 ext.3, or Jessica Jaramillo, Jaramillo@prdenver.com, (303) 298-1676 ext 4, public relations counsel to Protocols, LLC.

###